If you require a posted receipt please include a stamped self-addressed envelope with your payment.

It would be greatly appreciated if anyone sending money to the Windellama News would include their name and address and a note saying what it was for and put it in a sealed envelope. This would avoid a lot of confusion and uncertainty.

Our June meeting will be held at Diane James' house in McGaws Road on the 19th June.

Our AGM will be held at Sandy Marshall's house on the 16th July.

Our Cancer Appeal day this year is being held in August at Beryl Kremer's home. A beautiful quilt has been donated by Catherine Levy from Braidwood for a raffle and tickets are available from the Garden Club members. Please support this worthwhile charity as this disease affects so many of our friends.

Our latest two fundraising days have raised over $3,000 combined, with all proceeds going to the Cancer Council. More news on our fun day next month.

Don't forget Xmas in July with a 3 course Christmas Lunch. Ring Colleen on 4844 5207 or Pam on 4844 5194.

A good time was had by all at the Mother's Day Luncheon. A display of antique dolls by Gail Yeadon was most enjoyable and the sounds of the bagpipes being played by Barry Greaves was thoroughly enjoyed.

- 2nd C. Ellis
