

In Your Garden

From Irene Turner

Vegetables:

Seeds – Beans, climbing & dwarf; carrots, beetroot, radishes, parsnips, herbs, cucumber, squash zucchini, pumpkin, capsicum, sweet corn.

Seedlings – tomatoes, celery, lettuce.

Flowers:

Ageratum, aster, carnations, dahlias, linaria, lobelia, marigolds, nasturtium, petunias, phlox, portulaca, snapdragons, verbena.

Amaranthus, celosia, cockscomb, coleus, cosmos, gazanias, zinnia – these can be grown from seeds or seedlings.

Roses – check for aphids on the new growth. You can spray with water or pinch them off. Or you can spray with Rose spray, this will also help black spot.

Lawns:

If you have water and a lawn, you can fertilise now.

Cherry Trees – look for the cherry slug (shiny black slug). You can control them by spraying with Malathion or Carbaryl; or dust the tree with Cabbage Dust. You can make a spray using lime mixed with water – try this.

Plant of the Month Quercus Robur – Oak

The Oak is a hardy tree, grows to 33m with lobed oval leaves, long male catkins and small green-yellow flowers in spring. Autumn brings oblong cupped fruits (acorns) and oak galls - ball like growth produced by larvae.

Grow in any soil in any situation. Sow seed or graft in Autumn.

Uses – roast acorns for a coffee substitute. Strong durable timber is used to build ships, buildings, furniture & weapons, as fuel to smoke ham.

Bark yields tannin for leather, twine & various dyes.

Galls yield black ink.

A decoction of unblemished bark collected in late Spring is an effective astringent to take internally for diarrhea, hemorrhoids, varicose veins; a gargle for sore throats; or applied directly to bleeding gums or piles.

Use in a lotion for cuts, burns & hemorrhoids.

Congratulations

to Mary and Ken Buckley of Braidwood Road. Their garden near Tarago, was entered in the Lilac City Festival Garden Competition in Goulburn and took out three prizes: Best Senior Citizens, Best Large Garden, and the big one, Best Overall Garden for which the Bucleys received a Silver Bowl Perpetual Trophy. This is a great achievement for this Tarago couple, especially given the drought conditions in recent years.

Replacement Rear Hall Door

On Thursday 22nd October new safety quick release external doors were installed by Cliff Forbes of Goulburn who also made them. This was organised & donated by the Windellama News Team to Windellama Progress Assoc. as approved & committed earlier by the team.

The Windellama News team wishes to thank all the advertisers and donors and especially Dave Edworthy (website guru) who made this possible.

These doors will certainly make it safer & easier to operate the rear door in the future.
